Re: Response to Freedom of Information Act Request No. 2019-005

Dear Ms. Best:

This letter responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated May 21, 2019.

You requested the following records:

Any and all documents in the agency's possession that pertain to the WikiLeaks website or organization from January 2006 to the present date, including but not limited to emails, memos, notes, briefings, reports and other documents related to, mentioning or generated as a result of:

- guidance and instructions for employees regarding visiting the website or otherwise reading or learning about it in the news
- internal reactions to the website's existence and disclosures
- damage reports regarding the website and its disclosures
- efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential leaks to the website
- efforts to identify, investigate and/or mitigate potential unauthorized viewing of the website or news reports analyzing it and/or its contents

We conducted a search and found no records that are responsive to your request.

Waiver of Fees and Right to Appeal

I, Ana L. Velilla-Arce, am the Government Information Specialist for the ACHP, and the person responsible for this FOIA response. I have waived all fees in connection with its production.

You have the right to appeal this FOIA response within 30 calendar days after receiving this letter. The appeal must be in writing and addressed to:

John M. Fowler, Executive Director
Advisory Council on Historic Preservation
401 F Street NW, Suite 308
Washington, DC 20001-2637

The appeal will be acted upon within 20 working days of receipt. A written decision will be issued. If no decision has been issued within this 20 working day period, you will be deemed to have exhausted your administrative remedies.

Mediation

As part of the 2007 FOIA amendments, the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) was created to offer mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect your right to pursue litigation. If you are requesting access to your own records (which is considered a Privacy Act request), you should know that OGIS does not have the authority to handle requests made under the Privacy Act of 1974. You may contact OGIS in any of the following ways:
